Video Chats Can Help You Feel Closer During the Holidays

In a perfect world, families would all be together in one place to celebrate the holidays. But as families grow and spread to different cities, it's often not feasible for everyone to attend holiday events in person. Fortunately, video chats — via services such as Skype, FaceTime, and Google Hangouts — allow faraway family members to make a virtual appearance and participate in activities remotely. To quote the vintage commercial for long distance, "It's the next best thing to being there."

While you can use a variety of devices for video chats, you may find using a tablet to be the most practical option. Some families set a tablet at the empty spot around the dining room table so the person who's away can participate in the conversation. Or you could pass around a tablet to family gathered for the gift exchange so the person being streamed into the room can share in the excitement as each gift is unwrapped. You don't have to limit video chatting to major holiday events either. A quick, spontaneous chat can be a fun way to stay connected at any time of the year.

Crazy About Corny Christmas Movies?

Both Hallmark and Lifetime are going all out with their Christmas movies in 2019, which is great news for fans of unbelievably cute small towns, holiday-themed businesses, and love that conquers all. Sure, almost all of the plots follow a predictable format, but these movies aren't designed to surprise you. They're meant to provide an escape from the real world that's as sweet as a plateful of cookies and as comfortable as an evening with an old friend.

This year marks the 10th anniversary of Hallmark's hugely popular "Countdown to Christmas" event. The network will air 40 new Christmas movies—starring favorites like Candace Cameron Bure, Erin Krakow, and Dolly Parton—on the regular Hallmark channel and on Hallmark Movies and Mysteries.

To give you a taste of what's to come, here are some of the titles of the new Hallmark movies: A Christmas Love Story, Christmas in Rome, Christmas at Dollywood, Christmas Town, Christmas Wishes & Mistletoe Kisses, Christmas Camp, A Merry Christmas Match, Nostalgic Christmas, and Check Inn to Christmas. Look carefully and you'll see a pattern there!

Over at Lifetime, you can enjoy more Yuletide cheer during the "It's a Wonderful Lifetime" holiday event. This lineup features 28 Christmas movies including ones starring Melissa Joan Hart as an event coordinator and Tia Mowry-Hardrict as an antique store owner. Fans of One Tree Hill will be pleased to hear that Lifetime will air the movie The Christmas Contract starring the show's cast mates Hilarie Burton, Robert Buckley, Danneel Ackles, and Antwon Tanne.

So during the hustle and bustle of the holiday season, be sure to carve out some time to relax with these delightfully festive Christmas movies. You can watch the Hallmark and Lifetime channels live via your BEVCOMM TV package or anytime, anywhere with TV Everywhere.

The Hallmark Channel and TV Everywhere are subject to availability.*
